Martin Luther King Jr. Weekend

After a standing ovation this past weekend at Unison Arts Center in New Paltz, another MLK event where Artistic Director Michael Monasterial spoke was in Woodstock.

"Sam Cooke"

This American pop fable illuminates the life and musical genius of a true original. The pop singer who wrote, performed and produced 24 Billboard hits over his 8 years at the top of the charts was also a pioneer in the Civil Rights movement and an inventor of musical styles that are still incorporated in pop and gospel music 50 years later.

Sam Cooke's early years in Mississippi, his rise to fame and his demons that ultimately lead to his untimely demise are explored in this drama, but it is well seasoned with humor, pathos and most of all great, great music.

"Harry"

An original musical history play that is a tribute to the life and music of Harry Belafonte by Michael Monasterial of Passing the Torch Through the Arts. The play showcases Harry Belafonte's music and highlights his relationship with Dr. King and the major role he played in the Civil rights struggle. Three actors portray the major events of his life with humor, pathos and compassion.

Martin Luther King Jr. Day was a beautiful!
