Who We Are:

Passing the Torch Through the Arts is a culturally diverse, community based professional theater company, dedicated to education and social change. Our program is designed to serve at-risk youth in an innovative and completely interactive theater project.

We believe the Hudson Valley is a treasure trove of talent:
writers, actors, directors and we would love to help them perfect their craft or just keep their chops, close to home and without the expense of NYC.

Save the Date!

The 2010-2011 Passing the Torch Spokes-models for the Hudson Valley Youth Renewable Energy Expo will be winners of the:

Hudson Valley Sustaina-Beauty Pageant

This drama-comedy-musical review is based on the great American entertainer and humanitarian Harry Belafonte and gives a historical context for his life and his place in mainstream music.

With wonderful dialogue, timeless songs and strong educational value, the show has been performed for sold out houses and has received frequent standing ovations. This musical drama-comedy stars actor/writer Candi Sterling, actor/voice over artist Evelyn Clarke, and Michael Monasterial as Harry Belafonte. Special appearances by actor Brett Owen.

This April 2010 production is produced by the Performing Arts of Woodstock (PAW). PAW has been producing the finest local theater for over 40 years and has invited Passing the Torch Through the Arts because of the shared commitment to communities and dedication to enhancing the quality of life through theater for all generations and cultures in the Hudson Valley.*
